STEWARDS BEAR FRUIT

"No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate the yield of the land of Canaan." (Joshua 5:12)

Over the forty years that the Israelites journeyed through the desert, God provided them with manna to eat. As soon as they were able to enjoy the fruits of the Promised Land, the manna ceased. God's blessings to us as His Stewards may change over the years, but it is important to trust that God will always provide us with all that we need.

THE PARISH OF SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL FOOD PANTRY

"Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have; God is pleased by sacrifices of that kind." (Heb 13:16)

Neighbors helping neighbors is a very nice sentiment. But how? What can we do? Well, one-on-one may be difficult, but, as a caring faith community working together, helping becomes somewhat easier. Monetary donations as well as donations of non-perishable food items contributed to our Parish Food Pantry allow our Parish to provide assistance to our neighbors here in Clayton and Franklin Township.

Currently, the Pantry could use such items as canned fruit, applesauce, tuna, canned chicken, canned pasta meals (Chef Boyardee, Great Value, etc.), peanut butter, mac & cheese, cereal, and crackers are some suggestions but any and all nonperishable food items are appreciated. Currently, toothpaste and toothbrushes are also needed.

Your support of the Parish Food Pantry makes helping neighbors a reality ...
Thank you!

Most young adults chomp at the bit to leave home and to get out on their own, thinking this is the way they can do what they want. No more adults in authority telling them what to do – they are quite capable of ordering their own lives (or so they think). Frequently, these young folks find out just how expensive living on one's own is ... paying for rent, food, utilities, transportation, etc. It isn't as easy as it looks. Some of them, quite chagrined, are forced to move back home to get out of debt and to begin again. So perhaps we can readily identify from experience with the prodigal son in this weekend's Gospel who is chomping at the bit to leave home. He is even bold enough to ask for his share of the inheritance! How little he knows about life ... and how little he knows his father!

This weekend's Gospel begins with the Pharisees and the scribes complaining that Jesus welcomes and eats with sinners – how little they understand God! So, Jesus tells a parable. When the prodigal son "came to his senses" and returned home, the most he hoped for was that his father would give him a place as a servant so that he would have adequate food to eat. But the merciful father was extraordinary; he embraced him, clothed him in dignity, and honored him with a feast. Sinners though we are, our merciful Father longs to embrace and to celebrate with us. We have only to return to Him.

Expecting, hoping, and anticipating a minimal response from his father, the son returned home to receive lavishly from his father. The father didn't even answer the son's plea for minimal acceptance. He simply began the concrete events of showing mercy and welcome. The point: Jesus' welcome of sinners makes visible the love and mercy of God our Father ... a love and a mercy we all need because we are all sinful. Further, the "ministry of reconciliation" (Second Reading) given us by God places us in the role of the merciful father, reminding us of not only the value, but the necessity of forgiveness. Forgiveness brings us to accept others (and ourselves) as weak human beings who often hurt others and cause them anguish. We are like the forgiving father when we are compassionate and forgiving toward those who have harmed us. Then we are like our merciful God who treats us in just this same way.

The father of this weekend's Gospel is a model of mercy and reconciliation. It is the father who models for us Paschal Mystery living. It is the father in the parable who models for us the mercy of our heavenly Father – mercy that not only forgives and reconciles but offers a feast as well.

Our human tendency is to think we can make a go of life on our own. If we are happy to settle for minimums, some of us can muddle through life reasonably happy. This weekend's parable reminds us that God offers much, much more.

If we chose to die to self ("coming to [our] senses") and return to God, we are greeted with forgiveness and feasting. Even more, at our heavenly Father's Feast we aren't simply welcomed back as the sons and daughters we were, but we are transformed into more perfect sons and daughters sharing in divine life. We feast on much more than a fattened calf. The Feast to which we are invited is nothing less than the Body and Blood of the Son. Receiving God's forgiveness and mercy, and offering the same to one another, is how we pass from Wednesday ashes to Easter feasting.

May Saint Michael the Archangel defend, guide, protect, and intercede for us always!
